BOUGHT 300 HEAD

FATTENING JOHN DAY

CATTLE IN UMATILLA.

Fully Three Thousand Head Have Been Bought in the Interior This Fall for Full Feeding This Winter in This County—Cattle Were Light Weight This Year, But the Industry Will Be Prosecuted on a Larger Scale Than Ever.

Henry Lazinka, one of the prominent cattlemen of the Ukiah country, who also owns an elegant home in this city, came in to visit his family last evening and will remain in the city for a few days.

Mr. Lazinka has just returned from a trip through the John Day country, where he purchased 300 head of feeders, which he will winter near this city, where they can be secured at reasonable prices. He estimates that Umatilla county people bought fully 3000 head of feeders from the cattle ranges of the John Day country, most of this number to be wintered and fattened on the Butter Creek farms.

Pastures in the southern part of the county are in excellent condition and cattle are in prime condition to start in the winter. However, Mr. Lazinka says that cattle have weighed lighter this year than ever before, owing to the late cold spring, and the scarcity of grass, early in the spring, when it was needed.

He estimates that just as many cattle will be raised in the south part of the county, as ever, because the cattlemen are prepared for it, have large amounts of money invested in ranches, ranges and equipment, and much of the country is not fit for any other industry.

Although the prices have been low this season, and cattle have weighed out less than usual, no one in the business is discouraged and are prepared to turn off just as many fat steers every year, as in the past. If any change is made, it will be to reduce the number of cattle held and to improve the quality of the herds.

SOCIETY EVENTS

An event long to be remembered by many Pendleton people was the trip around the world, given last evening by the ladies of the Parish Aid Society of the Church of the Redeemer. The various homes throughout the city where the different countries were represented, were beautifully and artistically decorated for the occasion.

At Mexico, where the first stop was made, everything was in true Mexican style with the charming señoritas to serve you with hot tamales and other accessories.

At the Philippine village the decorations were very unique and many curios of the country were on display. The Philippine ladies in their strikingly odd costumes, served the travelers with cakes, rice and dried fish.

At Cyprus Station was the big Indian man and heap pretty squaws, who in their language invited their guests to sit on the floor and partake of their repast, consisting of dried beef, crackers and coffee, served from the crudest of cooking utensils.

At Scotland the true bonnie lassies were there in all their glory, and nothing was left undone in the entertainment of the tourists while under the Scottish roof.

At Holland were the pretty Dutch maedchen in their quaint little caps and full round skirts, whose hospitable ways made them all the more charming. A true Dutch meal was to be had there, consisting of sauer kraut, Frankforts, bread and a substitute for Holland gin.

When Japan was reached by the tourists, they could scarcely believe but that they were surely in the Orient, when so many Japanese maidens flocked about them, inviting them to drink tea and eat rice.

After visiting the above named countries, the travelers visited Nome, and then returned to the United States, where Uncle Sam and the Goddess of Liberty made them welcome home. Here was the final assembly of all the nationalities and a general good time was indulged in until the early morning hours.

Music was played throughout the evening and refreshments were served in true American style.

Mrs. Furnish Entertains.

A delightful time was spent on the evening of the election at the home of Mrs. W. J. Furnish, when she invited in a few friends to hear the election returns and play "500." It was strictly a Roosevelt evening, and the prizes which were awarded were in keeping with the occasion. "Strenuous Epigrams," by Theodore Roosevelt, was the first prize, and won by Miss Moorhouse. The consolation prize, a republican campaign watch fob, was won by Mrs. Thomas C. Warner. After the game a chafing dish lunch was served. The ladies present were Mesdames Frank Moule, Thomas Thompson, Lee Held, W. L. Thompson, Ernest Skiles, Edwin Switzer, J. A. Borle, Thomas C. Warner, C. E. Roosevelt, W. E. Starkweather, Misses Stella Alexander, Ida Thompson and Miss Moorhouse. Mrs. Harry Rees of Spokane, and Mrs. Dr. Keylor of Walla Walla, were the out-of-town guests.

A Tin Wedding.

One of the most pleasant affairs of the week was given on Monday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Roosevelt celebrated their tin wedding by inviting a few of their friends to help celebrate the occasion. Many wedding presents of tin were received by host and hostess. "500" was played throughout the evening, after which a chafing dish lunch was served. The prizes of tin, were won by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dickson. The guests were Messrs. and Mesdames T. C. Taylor, Frank Clifton, John Whistler, Leon Cohen, Frederick Judd, W. E. Brock, Mrs. Bertha Guernsey, Miss Neva Lane and Miss Roberts. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Henry Judd and Mrs. Leonard D. Fisk, of Hartford, Conn.; Mrs. Dr. Keylor, of Walla Walla, and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Jackson, of Portland.

An Afternoon Gathering.

A small company of friends spent an enjoyable afternoon with Mrs. Charles C. Berkeley Wednesday afternoon to play "500." Those invited were Mesdames Edwin Switzer, Harry Johnson, Frank Moule, Charles Ferguson, Thomas Warner and Mrs. Harry Rees of Spokane; Miss Ida Thompson, Beale Switzer, Stella Alexander and Miss Roberts.

Delightful Surprise Party.

Miss Laura Wyrick was the victim of a surprise on Monday evening at her home at the corner of Willow and Bluff streets, the event being the anniversary of her birth. The affair was cleverly planned by her friends, who were Misses Edith and Mabel Johnson, Ray Vogel, Josephine Cameron, Nona Alloway, Clara Boylen, Irene McCarthy and Fay Carney. The young gentlemen invited were Messrs. Clarence Hollerman, Fred Kees, Roy Alexander, George and Dave Hill, Furnish Slater and Elmer Storey.

Unique Entertainment.

The young women of the First Christian church gave a unique entertainment at the church parlors last night, in the nature of a trip to various foreign countries. Costumed girls and women represented Syria, Siam and the castles of East India in a pleasing and realistic manner. The entertainment was successfully conducted and was the first of a series of similar programs to be given during the winter months.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church are making arrangements for a bazaar to be held in the early part of December.

PETER CHRISTOPHER ILL.

Pioneer Farmer Lingered Near Death at His Country Home.

Uncle Peter Christopher is lying very ill at his home six miles northwest of town, says the Adams Advance. His health has been breaking for several months and the present state of it is only a sequence of what could be expected in the natural course of events.

Mr. Christopher is one of the old-time settlers of Umatilla county, having come here in 1877, settling on the land, then a bunchgrass plain where he has made his home up to this time. He has always taken a lively interest in all public affairs and all with whom he has come in contact, feel a friendly interest in him, and will regret to learn of his present low condition in health.

Memorial Services for C. F. Brown.

The La Grande churches will unite tomorrow morning at the M. E. church in that city in a union memorial service in memory of Conductor Charles F. Brown, who met his death at Kamela Tuesday morning. No other morning service will be held in any of the churches, the entire membership of all uniting to do honor to the memory of their fellow townsman and citizen, who was held in universal esteem.

Reeder's Streak of Luck.

B. C. Reeder, of Nye, is in the city today, in a very happy mood. Mr. Reeder boasts of a streak of luck that comes to but few mortals. On his own birthday, November 8, his wife gave birth to their first son, a nine-pound boy, and President Roosevelt, Mr. Reeder's choice, was elected president by the largest majority ever given an America president.

Many Thanks.

The ladies of the Parish Aid Society wish the general public as patrons, all the active promoters and participants in the "Trip Around the World," and the newspaper fraternity to know that their efforts to make the event a social and financial success are fully appreciated.

Medal Shoot Tomorrow.

The regular monthly medal shoot of the Pendleton Sportsmen's Association will be held at the ranges south of town, beginning at 10 o'clock tomorrow. All the sportsmen in town are invited to be present.

Will Teach at Ferndale.

Thanksgiving Service.

The protestant ministers of Pendleton will meet Monday morning at 10 o'clock at the Presbyterian church for the purpose of discussing plans for Thanksgiving services.

Will Tax to Run the School.

The property owners in school district 22, east of Milton, will shortly hold an election to vote a tax for the running expenses of the school.

ABOUT THAT COAT

You wear a coat. Why? To keep the cold out? No; to keep the warmth in. What of the body that has no warmth—the thin, poor body that lacks the healthy flesh and fat it needs?

For such we say that Scott's Emulsion provides the right kind of a coat. Why? Because Scott's Emulsion builds firm, solid flesh and supplies just enough fat to fill nature's requirements—no more. That means bodily warmth.
